We published a paragraph a few days ago about a French lady who had given birth to eleven sons within five years—four pairs of twins and triplets—but Mary's Home, about thirty miles from Jefferson City, Mo., eclipses that with a story of a Mrs. Smith who in seven years has become the mother of sixteen children—one single birth, two pairs of twins, triplets twice, and the latest a quintet of boys, solid little chaps weighing thirty pounds.

BUOYS AT LITTLE RIVER, S. C.

The Wistaria Placed Guides for Vessels

Entering There Thursday Afternoon.

The United States buoy tender Wistaria, which passed out of this port early in the week proceeded to Little River, S. C., and on Thursday afternoon established three buoys off that place. A sea buoy was placed at the entrance to the harbor and two red buoys were placed on the east shoals as vessels enter the port. These will be maintained and kept in position by the government in the future.

Hitherto the only guide to sea transportation to Little River was a private buoy established there by Capt. W. A. Sanders, of the Wilmington and Little River Transportation Company. Capt. Sanders and members of the transportation company recently petitioned the Light House Board for the demarcations installed by the Wistaria and they are to be congratulated on the early realization of the object of their request.

Buoys have also been asked for the Shallotte entrance and it is hoped that these will also soon be established.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.

Remmon of Survivors of First North Carolina Battalion and Thirtieth State Troops.

[Special Star Correspondence.]

WALLACE, N. C., September 21.—The reunion held here yesterday of surviving members of Company B, First North Carolina Battalion, C. S. A. (heavy artillery), and Company E, Thirtieth North Carolina State Troops, was crowned with abundant success.

Company B was present with twenty-four men and Company E with four men. It was noted that out of nine commissioned officers, Company E none were killed in battle and eight are still living. Only one commissioned officer survives in Company B, the venerable Lieut. Wells Taylor. The Rev. R. Murphy Williams, by invitation, made a speech of welcome to the veterans, which was very feelingly received and tenderly received by the gallant old soldiers assembled. Calls were then made for Capt. McMillan and Dr. J. D. Croom, who surrounded the speaker with their hands and as only their hands can provide, and it was a pleasant sight to see the old veterans rally around the speaker and tenderly receive him.

After dinner a joint meeting was held and it was agreed to have an annual reunion of the two companies and to respectfully invite all Confederate soldiers to meet with them. The third Thursday in September, 1901, at Teachers, N. C., was appointed as the time and place for the next meeting.

A very enthusiastic vote of thanks was tendered to the people of Wallace for the splendid reception and hospitalities shown, which made the day one of unbroken pleasure and will ever be sweetly cherished in the memories of the old soldiers, who fought so valiantly in a cause they believed was just and glorious enough to die for.

FARM AND GARDEN

FITTING THE SOIL.

For Roots or Tubers—Comfortable and Uncomfortable Beets.
Figs. 1 and 2 show sugar beets grown under proper soil conditions, and Figs. 3 and 4 show beets grown in improper soil. The beets in Fig. 3 are small and the roots are short and thick. The beets in Fig. 4 are large and the roots are long and thin.

TOO MUCH OF GROUND—AS IT OUGHT TO BE.

143 to see which beets were made comfortable and which were so cramped and hampered that they were compelled to throw out feeders, or fingers and toes.
Fleshy, rapid growing roots, as the beet, or tubers, as the potato, in order to expand and grow naturally in the ground must have the soil so mellow and loose that in growing they will not be crowded out. In the case of the beets with the prongs the subsoil had not been properly loosened so that the roots could develop in it, and as growth progressed feeding roots were thrown out in the directions of least resistance, and the result is a monstrosity.
It has been found that a plant will send out feeding roots in the direction of the most available plant food. Where fertilizer was applied to beets as a top dressing a large per cent of the crop was ill shaped. The sugar beet requires for proper growth a deep, mellow, well drained soil. If these conditions are not present naturally, they must be produced artificially by those who would succeed in growing beets for the factory.
What is true of the crop just mentioned is true to a greater or less extent of all farm crops. Certain conditions are required to make the plants comfortable, and these conditions vary with different crops.
In potato culture one question which is asked more than all others combined is, "What makes the potatoes grow out of the ground?" We are informed that the potatoes must be killed in order to keep the tubers from becoming sunburned. A rapidly growing tuber must have a mellow soil on all sides in order to expand if it is to expand uniformly. If the lower side of the potatoes rests upon hardpan or upon soil which has not been well fitted, it must of necessity expand in an upward direction.
The plow if properly used is the most effective weapon of the farmer in reducing the soil to a state of subjection. It destroys undesirable plants, it aerates the soil, and it is a factor in the success of the farmer.

SAURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 22.

THE MOVEMENT OF COTTON.

Hester's Statement—Receipts, Exports and Mill Takings—Stocks—The World's Supply of Cotton.

By Telegram to the Morning Star.

NEW ORLEANS, September 21.—Secretary Hester's weekly statement, issued to-day, shows the amount of cotton brought into sight for the week ending this afternoon to be 236,111 bales, against 277,075 for the seven days ending this date last year and 245,400 year before last. LYNCHING IN LOUISIANA.

Four Negroes Taken from a Jail and Hanged by Citizens—A Wholesale Lynching Feared.

By Telegram to the Morning Star.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 21.—In "Bloody" Tangipahoa Parish last night, four negroes were hanged, after the jail in the village of Pontchartrou had been broken open and the prisoners, accused of robbing the family of Henry Hoffeliter, had been taken from their cells. Mrs. Hoffeliter, who resided in the village, was choked to death and beaten so unmercifully that she lost her mind. Wholesale lynchings are feared.

HEAVY RAIN IN TEXAS.

Serious Damage to Cotton and the Railroads—Flood in Trinity River.

By Telegram to the Morning Star.

DALLAS, Tex., Sept. 21.—The storm last night over northern and northwestern Texas was one of the most disastrous rain and electrical storms experienced in years. The damage is heavy, but is confined largely to cotton and railroad interests. Farmers declare that the injury to the cotton crop will reach ten per cent. The Trinity river at Dallas has risen twenty feet since last night and overflowed its banks to-day. At Fort Worth considerable loss was sustained. The Trinity river left its banks during the night and the valley as far as the eye could see was a vast sheet of water. The river rose twenty-one feet during the night. The city park there was submerged to a depth of four feet and the water works was an island.

Sheriff Toole and Deputies O'Donnell and Brennen were called to Shenandoah to-day to suppress the mob that threatened mine workers and colliery property. At quitting time three deputy sheriffs and a small posse with the sheriff had summoned to the Shenandoah colliery. The colliery was the scene of the trouble. MASSACRES IN MANCHURIA.

Wholesale Destruction of Life and Property of Chinese by the Russian Troops.

By Telegram to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Concerning the massacre of five thousand Chinese at Blagovestchensk by Russians, the Evening Post contains an account from G. Frederick Wright, one of the faculty of Oberlin (Ohio) College, who was erroneously reported killed at an attempt to cross the river from Strelnik, Siberia, under date of Aug. 6, and says:

"July 14 the fort at Argun began without warning to fire upon passing steamboats, and on the 15th fire was opened upon Blagovestchensk and some Russian villages were burned opposite the fort. The actual massacre of Chinese was slight, but the terror caused by it was indescribable and it drove the Cossacks into a frenzy of rage. The peaceful Chinese of the city, who were expelled in great haste, and being forced upon refugees entirely inadequate, were most of them drowned in the stream as they fled. Three days after, hundreds of the corpses were counted in the water."

"In our ride through the country to reach the city on Thursday, the 19th, we saw as many as thirty villages and hamlets of the Chinese in flames. One of them was a city of 8,000 or 10,000 inhabitants. We estimated that we saw the dwellings of 20,000 peaceable Chinese in flames that awful day, while parties of Cossacks were scouring the fields to find Chinese and shooting them down at sight. What became of the women and children, no one knew; there was apparently no way for them to escape to a place of safety. On our way up the river we saw the Chinese being killed in the streets. The large village of Mochla was still smoking, and we were told that the Chinese had been killed in the streets. The wholesale destruction, both of property and life, was thought to be a military necessity. Peace between the Russians and the Chinese has come to an end. Years cannot wipe out the enemy engendered."

BOXERS ARE ACTIVE.

Christian Families Murdered in the Neighborhood of Pekin—Massacres in Shansi Province.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, September 21.—Dr. Morrison, the Pekin correspondent of the Times, wiring on September 16th, says:

"Owing to the increasing activity of the Boxers and to the fact that Christian families have been murdered during the last few days in the neighborhood of Pekin, a general order has been issued forbidding parties to go foraging without escort."

"The British forces are so reduced that the proposed punitive expedition to clear out the Boxers in the vicinity of the British summer residences in the hills, has been postponed. Only 400 foot and fifty sabres were available."

"Horror has been excited through out China by authentic details of the massacre of the missionaries in Shansi province, where Yu Hsien was appointed governor, without a protest from Great Britain, despite the fact that the entire missionary body had warned the British government that his appointment would lead to an anti-foreign outbreak."

"It is now known that when the news reached the Chinese authorities here that Yu Hsien had murdered forty-three missionaries whom he had invited into his yamen, the Chinese government, on July 14, had ordered the foreign ministers and their families to enter the Tung Li Yamen under a similar offer of protection. Fortunately the invitation was declined."

MANCHESTER COTTON SPINNERS.

Movement to Curtail the Consumption of American Cotton.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

MANCHESTER, ENG., September 21.—At a meeting of cotton spinners here to-day it was decided to recommend that all members of the trade union Association of Cotton Spinners should abstain from cotton spinners' mills for the first twelve working days of October.

The vote was nearly unanimous. The roads of carrying out the resolution were left to the discretion of the individual manufacturers. It is estimated that if it is loyally supported, the consumption of the cotton in question will be reduced by 120,000 bales.

The action of the spinners to-day was in response to a circular issued by the employers' Federation asking for twelve days' stoppage, which was not as definite as wished on account of the varying circumstances of the mills.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY'S PURPOSE.

Will Not Take Active Part in Campaign.

By Telegram to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, September 21.—President McKinley, accompanied by Secretary Cortelyou, left Washington at 7:45 o'clock this evening for Canton, Ohio. The President has not made any public statement since his departure from Washington. It will depend largely upon developments in the Chinese situation. It can be stated positively that he will not take any active part in the campaign and will not make campaign speeches. He will make no public speeches whatever, according to the present programme, and he will not make any campaigning tour of any sort, despite the reports of a movement to try to persuade him to take such action. There likewise will be no receptions of visiting delegations.

U. S. GOVERNMENT.

MAKES ANSWER.

Full Disclosure to the Powers of Its Purposes in Regard to China.

WITHHELD FROM THE PUBLIC.

German Proposal Failed of Approval. Suggestion for International Commission to Adjust Difficulties. Advice from Chaffee.

By Telegram to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, September 21.—The United States government has made full and complete answers to the various important inquiries that have been addressed to it by the powers relative to the Chinese trouble. It has gone further, and has made a disclosure of all its purposes, and, as a member of the administration puts it, it has thrown its hand open on the table. This action was taken after the cabinet meeting to-day, and a luncheon at the White House that followed served to reach the decision to the ultimatum.

At 3:30 o'clock Minister Wu called by appointment upon Acting Secretary Hill and was handed a memorandum containing the answers to the questions of the United States government to the request of Prince Ching that Mr. Conger or some other person be immediately empowered to begin of negotiations with the Chinese authorities for a final settlement. The minister came away with a disaffected expression upon his face. Next came Mr. Chaffee, the German chargé, who had been notified of the readiness of the State Department to make answer to the German note, and he was given the answers. He hastened away to cable it to his government.

The department then sent the answer to the Russian inquiry forwarded by messenger and direct cablegrams containing the substance of the answers to its diplomatic representatives. The closed door of the most interesting and important phases of the Chinese entanglement.

NOT MADE PUBLIC.

The State Department absolutely refused to make any statement as to the nature of the answers, taking the ground that to do so would be a violation of the diplomatic proprieties. However, it was calculated that as all of the answers were given to the German, Russian and Chinese, their destinations abroad by tomorrow it was promised that the text of the communications should be given to the press tomorrow afternoon. The ministers and charges who received the messages have adopted the same secretive attitude. The President himself, it seems, had given instructions that no answer should be given until the official disclosure.

The German Proposal. With all this, it is known that the German proposal, that negotiations with China be deferred until the Chinese responsible for the Pekin outrage have been surrendered to our government, has failed of approval by the United States. The principle that has been conveyed in a manner that cannot give offence, but it is believed that the United States government cannot recognize the principle that a country may be called upon to surrender its own citizens to a foreign power or powers for punishment. The government does not intend to accept the idea of the ultimate punishment of the offenders when they are properly identified, but it does not believe that the United States should put a stop to all negotiations.

Commission May Be Appointed. The idea of a commission to adjust the difficulties with China is again brought forward and it is suggested that a commission on the part of the United States be appointed. The idea of the joint international commission, which it is hoped will be appointed for the purpose, or in the event of failure, a commission to secure joint action, then the members can go on and deal directly with China for a settlement. The names of Minors and Rockhill are mentioned in connection with this.

It is believed that the outcome, from a military point of view, will be the withdrawal of all but one regiment of the American troops from China to Manila, where they can be kept in readiness to deal with any emergency. Gen. Chaffee probably will remain in China, in command of the force there which will be regarded simply as a regular garrison.

One fact concerning the United States answers that was learned officially is that they contain no new proposal. The only new way the debris of unanswered inquiries is Rockhill-Wilson Expedition.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—The following dispatch, received at the War Department yesterday from General Chaffee, was made public this morning:

"Pekin, Sept. 19.—Rockhill-Wilson expedition returned; object successfully accomplished; no casualties to our troops. Fourteen Chinese were captured; returned, bringing in fourteen. The surrounding country is growing less peaceful and more peaceful, so far as any expedition can determine questions."

The date of this cablegram—Pekin, Sept. 19.—shows that close communication has been established with the Chinese capital.

LI HUNG CHANG.

TONG KUI, Sept. 19, via Shanghai. Sept. 20.—Li Hung Chang arrived on Tuesday at the Taku anchorage, where he was welcomed by Rear Admiral Hemy and the Russian flag captain. He proceeded to Tong KUI to-day. He was received with no special honors and no special attention.

Only the Russian and Japanese envoys called on him, but he had a long conference with Vice Admiral Alexieff, on board a Russian warship.

Earl Li accompanied by a guard of seven, and his own escort, the latter unarmed but wearing the imperial uniform, will proceed by special train to Tien Tsin where a residence has been prepared for his occupancy.

RUSSIANS SHELLING PEI TANG.

BERLIN, September 21.—A dispatch received here from Taku, dated to-day, says:

By Telegram to the Morning Star.

GALVESTON, TEXAS, September 21.—At noon today martial law was abolished, and the civil government resumed control of affairs. The contract for clearing the streets was awarded to a local firm. A. J. Youens, inspector for the Galveston Board of Underwriters, is footing up the losses. His diagram shows that from five to seven blocks of the district lying along the Gulf of Mexico and west of Forty-second street, were shorn clear of buildings.

Mrs. Massey, vice president of the Texas Society, will leave for Washington Sunday night and will explain to the people of the country exactly what is needed in Galveston. Her ideas in the meetings should be held throughout the United States and the needs of Galveston thoroughly explained.

WRIGHTSVILLE, GA., Sept. 21.—Jerry Walden, a young white man, was this morning acquitted of the murder of George Dixon and sentenced to life imprisonment. Mrs. Dixon, wife of the deceased, and paragon of Walden, who was to have been put on trial to-day as a principal in the same crime, made a sensational escape from custody between midnight and daylight this morning.

She was in the personal charge of Sheriff Rowland, who locked her in a room on the top floor of the court house. There was a key in the door of the room and that key was in the sheriff's pocket. Upon locking her in, shortly before midnight, the sheriff sat down in a chair in front of the door. He fell asleep, and when he had awakened the woman was gone, but the key was still in his pocket. When the matter was reported to the court, the judge ordered the grand jury to make a rapid investigation.

THIRD PARTY COLLAPSED.

Leaders Have Abandoned the Idea of Keeping a Presidential Ticket in the Field.

By Telegram to the Morning Star.

BOSTON, September 21.—The National party, composed of men who feel that they cannot conscientiously vote either for McKinley or Bryan, at a conference held at Young's Hotel this afternoon abandoned the idea of keeping a presidential ticket in the field, and Archibald M. Howe, of this State, who was nominated for vice president in New York on the 5th instant, is expected to follow Senator Caffery of Louisiana, the presidential nominee, informally withdrawing his candidacy. This action is virtually made necessary by Senator Caffery's declaration and the failure to find any one willing to stand in his stead, and by the impracticability of perfecting an organization throughout the country at this late period in the campaign. Those who have headed the movement, however, will endeavor to save it from complete collapse by nominating one presidential elector in Massachusetts and in some other State.
